

Attendance Management

TSW provide both practical and informative solutions to common absence issues and work with the organisation to ensure effective monitoring and management of absence to minimise loss. TSW will design and develop attendance management policies and procedures and launch them professionally throughout the organisation, supported with training for Supervisors and Managers on the process and the softer skills for effective application.