

Preparing to Teach in the Life Long Learning Sector (PTLLS)

making a positive difference to people and organisational performance

- Duration: 5 Days
- Overview: This is a new qualification for those who are working in the training or teaching sector or wishing to embark upon a career in the training sector. The qualification is part of a wider initiative to develop a highly qualified and professional education workforce through reforms in training, qualifications and continuing professional development for those working within the entire Lifelong Learning and Skills sector.
- Designed for: To help achieve the goal of a highly trained education workforce, Edexcel has launched a comprehensive series of qualifications designed for teachers, tutors, trainers, instructors and lecturers in the Lifelong Learning sector.
- Objectives: The qualification is made up of the units of assessment that underpin the role specifications and clearly set out the learning outcomes and assessment criteria that new teachers, trainers and tutors are expected to achieve. Throughout the course you will cover the following subjects:
- Teaching styles
 - Learning styles
 - Lesson planning
 - Health & Safety
 - Equal Opportunities
 - Assessment Methods
- Method: The qualification is a BTEC award through the awarding body Edexcel. TSW will deliver the qualification on site through workshops and self study. The qualification will be assessed through portfolio building, reflection and observation.
- They are quality assured by an external verifier in accordance with the current practice applied to Edexcel's BTEC qualifications.

This course can be run exclusively and tailored to suit your company's specific learning requirements and organisational needs. Costs are dependent on number of days required and bespoke content
